Consignment Agreement

In consideration of Lafayette Fashionista's service to display and sell the Consignor's clothing and accessories, the Consignor will receive 50% of the sales price listed on the consignment inventory list. Two dollars per item will be added to this price, to be paid by the buyer of the item to cover the cost of handling and ticketing. This fee is not charged to you, the Consignor.

Store credit can be used at any time after your items have been sold. Checks will be available to be picked up at Shop on any Friday; a verbal request to have a check prepared must be received by the prior Wednesday. Checks will not be mailed unless a stamped, self-addressed envelope has been provided. Moneys not collected within six (6) months of the date of consignment will be considered abandoned and will revert to Lafayette Fashionista.

The term of the consignment will be for a period of 90 days. It is the responsibility of the Consignor to collect unsold articles at the end of the contract term. This date is listed on your inventory receipt; please call to request your unsold items pulled 3 days prior to pick up. Any items not collected by Consignor within 5 days from the contract termination will be considered abandoned by the Consignor and the items will become the property of Lafayette Fashionista.

No additional notice will be given to the Consignor prior to the end of the consignment period.

Lafayette Fashionista reserves the right to price all items. If an item has not sold after 30 days from the consignment date, the price of the item will be reduced by 20%, if not sold after 60 days the price will be reduced 40% from the original price. All items may be subject to price reductions for special sales of shop promotions.

While reasonable precautions will be taken by Lafayette Fashionista for items consigned, Lafayette Fashionista will not be responsible for theft, nor for loss or damage to any of the consigned items.

This sale guideline contains the entire agreement between Consignor or Consignee shall not be modified unless in writing and signed by the Consignor and Consignee.
